Schools to reopen early September—Chakwera

FRANK NAMANGALE, NEWS ANALYST

President Lazarus Chakwera has said schools that will meet set Covid-19 requirements will open early September.

In his national address monitored on local radio stations last night, the President said he was thankful to God that despite the number of people found with Covid-19 virus passing the 5 000 mark, only five percent have been serious cases that required hospitalisation.

"Even among the 389 health workers who have contracted the virus, we have lost only one and the rest are in recovery. I thank God for this.

"Secondly, I thank our health workers for continuing to defend us from the virus with their expertise in matters of prevention and treatment. Because of their efforts, over 37 000 have now been tested," said Chakwera.

The President also thanked members of the Presidential Task Force on Covid-19 for their work of coordinating and spearheading efforts to fight against the spread of the
